North West Glasgow Voluntary Sector Network Update

Glasgow Community Fund Review Panel

 As a member of the North West Sector Partnership, the Network will be taking part in the Glasgow Communities Fund Review Panel. Because we had offered review panel training and support to Community Council members on the first round of GCF funding, they have requested that we provide this again. We will therefore be providing 2 training sessions, for Community Council members who will be participating in the Review panel. The training will look at conflicts of interest, wider context of GCF, the application itself and any other help they feel they need to perform their role on this

IT Recycling Project

- The network has given away over 750 PC packages to referrers across North West Glasgow. A big thank you to donators, referrers and funders for their continued support.
- An issue, now, is acquiring/funding much needed Mifi boxes in order for the network to continue giving at least 6months free unlimited wifi with PC packages.
- We continue to receive referrals daily from organisations across the North West. https://nwgvsn.org.uk/network-it-recycling-project-update/

Ward Reports

Some of the ward reports below are comprehensive updates from a selection of our member organisations. There are, however; several emerging themes across them

- Increase in the number of our members offering food bank/pantry services
- Increase in the number of our members dealing with other cost of living crisis issues for the people they work with
- Members opening longer for or preparing to offer Welcome Spaces for people in their community that cannot afford to heat their homes
- The impact of all of the above on member organisations and their capacity needs to be recognised and monitored

Glasgow's Golden Generation

It's been a good few months at the day centre, with one of our service users, Janet Harvey, celebrating her 100th birthday with a party at the centre. Carpet bowls, bingo and musical chair exercises continue to be popular amongst our service users, with a variety of activities on offer each day. October saw the opening of our Sky Up Hub which has been put in place by the team at Sky. This room is designed to help us provide digital literacy skills to older adults in Glasgow and it is equipped with all the latest tech.

The Fred Paton Day Centre is now available for community lets in the evening and at weekends. https://www.facebook.com/Glasgowsgoldengeneration and https://www.glasgowgg.org.uk/

Marie Trust – for people who are experiencing homelessness or at risk.

Refurbishment: We are at the end of a refurbishment at 29 Albion St, Merchant City, redesigning the spaces in the building and creating new a treatment room for Dental and Pharmacy and two counselling/crisis intervention rooms. We wanted a front-facing building with natural light where people could walk in off the streets into the service and have a visible presence. We plan to open before Christmas – the date to be confirmed. We will have open events for people to come and visit and learn about the service.

Training Kitchen: We now have a larger training kitchen to deliver life skills and skills for work with Eilidh Macdonald, our head chef delivering the training on a daily basis to 6 volunteers (all must have lived experience of homelessness, addiction, mental health, or offending). For those who are interested in taking the first step back into employment, we will offer trials and work placements with our new partnerships at Pret a Manger, Greggs, and Interstate Hotel. Everyone who comes through the volunteering is supported by our Volunteer Coordinators, with support, mentoring, and training provided.

Food Store: Sadly, we have needed to create a food store to support the people who are struggling with economic challenges

Not for Profit Café (Healthy Living Plus Award Service): We have two large café areas, where we are delivering twilight education programs and have digital access (iPad use), we plan on utilizing the space to be more accessible and out with the normal 9-5 traditional working hours.

Crisis Intervention: Our teams are out in the community and at The Rennie, MacIntosh Hotel delivering immediate assistance to those who are homeless or at risk. We have also been delivering outreach to patients at Glasgow Royal Infirmary who have been identified as homeless or at risk as part of their discharge.

We also deliver Counselling and Psychotherapy Service, Dental Services (Clyde Munro Dental group) and Pharmacy outreach service with Phoenix Pharmacy https://www.facebook.com/TheMarieTrust and https://www.themarietrust.org/

The Pyramid, Anderston

- Capital Project: Phase 1 (ground floor community hall, kitchen, new changing facilities and ground floor toilets and roof repairs) is delayed therefore we still have no ground floor hall or kitchen. Reopening of these spaces is now looking more likely to be very late in the year, or in early 2023. Phase 2 application is underway
- Holiday Food Programme: awarded funding from GCC Holiday Food Programme fund for the October Week(2022) and Spring Break(2023) to support around 70 children per day over 3 separate sessions.
- Winter Festivals: Our first event is a celebration on Sunday 23 October, with a screening of The Adventures of Prince Achmed with live music accompaniment. We secured a small grant from Hubbub as part of their food waste campaign to get people to eat their pumpkin 'guts' so Jim Parkyn, Aardman Ambassador, will be back to run pumpkin carving workshops on 26 October, alongside pumpkin-based food demos and tasters. These two events will be followed by a Traditional Halloween/Sammhein Event on Mon 31 Oct.
- We were successful with our funding bid made to Creative Scotland to support a Community Artist and Musician in Residence programme linking to the whole Winter Festivals Programme.

Hillhead

There are three main issues of greatest concern to the Voluntary Sector in this Report which are all related to the grave effects on our residents of the current Cost of Living and the Energy Crisis.

1. Throughout our whole Voluntary Sector Network our members have found a dramatic increase in the assistance in the rapid consumption of food supplies ranging from traditional food banks to community fridges and shops. We are all experiencing unprecedented demands which they cannot satisfy. Hillhead Area is no exception. Queens Cross has is opening a second larger shop on Garscube Road and also provides assistance at the Courtyard for the tenants at Westercommon. Community Central Hall (CCH) has organized a Community Fridge which can be accessed in both daytime and evenings. The provisions seem to fly off the shelves. We are moving the operation to a shopfront for more space and to improve storage and distribution. We are also planning delivery of Christmas parcels in our area.

During the summer holidays Breakthrough had assisted young people in learning to cook together and producing a communal meal. This has now been continued at the weekly youth club which most of them attend. We are most grateful to the parents who have assisted in helping them to cook together. This has resulted in the formation of a Parents group to assist Breakthrough. Their fundraising contributed 24 of our youth having a most enjoyable visit to Blackpool in October Week.

2. One of the most critical issues at present in our area and indeed throughout the Voluntary Sector Network is the proposal for an increase in Nursery Provider Partnership Funding which was referred from the City Administration Committee to the Education, Skills and Early Years Committee. The Report from The City Admin Committee had suggested an increase of 39 pence per hour per child. This was determined by a cost collection study by Ipsos Mori in January 2022. The previous price had been incorporated in the Provisioning Contract of 2019 for a period of three years. The uplift of 39 Pence has cause considerable concern throughout the Voluntary Sector. It was claimed in the Report that this would be sufficient to cover the rise in the Minimum Wage. Though it was claimed to include a small increased energy costs the decision was made long before the current dramatic increase in these costs. It is now widely felt that the increase of 39 pence is simply unsustainable. Many nurseries have already come to the conclusion that if this uplift is implemented they will have no option other than to withdraw from the Partnership Scheme and to operate on a purely commercial basis. The Scottish Government has already that a substantial number of nurseries have not reopened since the pandemic resulting in a shortage of childcare places. In our Area Partnership the effects of Partnership Provisioning Contracts stopping would have catastrophic consequences.

Lack of access to high quality early years provision for pre-school children is acknowledged to reinforce the Attainment Gap for pre-school children and a such acts as a barrier to achieving positive educational outcomes by the time children leave school. The Scottish Government Scottish Attainment Challenge is a key policy measure to address these disparities and as such requires a strong early year's sector to contribute to a child's early learning and development.

It further acts to, reduce opportunities for those families who are socially excluded or in low paid employment opportunities while acting as a barrier to sustaining employment and or participating in further or higher education courses of learning to increase skills and employability.

Any further contraction of the sector will contribute to restricting social and economic growth at a critical time for the local and national economy going forward while reducing the life chances for children and young people in the future.

3. Glasgow City Council has published a list of mainly libraries which are to provide the Warm Hubs to offer refuge to residents who are unable to afford to heat their homes. Many in the Voluntary Sector have raised questions as to whether libraries are the appropriate place to host such a service. In our area Woodside Library has been designated as the Hub. Aside from the issue of the lack of space in some libraries separate from the quiet space for study areas and reading, most libraries would not have the facilities to offer hot drinks and lunches to the new hub users. In developing plans to apply for National funding CCH had demonstrated the capacity of Voluntary sector to provide a range of activities and social contact for users. In our premises we have a Community Cinema and widescreen TV available. We are disappointed that the Voluntary Sector organizations have been relegated of expecting the sector to take away their own staff to visit libraries and to conduct activities in many instance in unsuitable premises.

All organisations and churches are looking to see what they can do for this looming potential "winter of our discontent". Community meals, food packs, Christmas boxes, energy top up or alternative sources if any power cuts- are amongst some of the forming ideas. Many potential funding sources so just trying to pull as much into Partick to be as prepared and as supportive as we can be.

- We are launching our Youth Volunteer Programme in January the application deadline is 21st November. The main reason for this programme is for young individuals to gain skills and experience of working in a sports organisation to improve their confidence and overall employability. This programme is targeted at secondary school children from S3+. There are two roles in which the young individuals can volunteer, as a Volunteer Coach or as a Volunteer Operations & Events Coordinator. To gain more information or an application pack, please email our Community Officer at matthew.lees@movementpark.org.uk with the subject title 'Youth Volunteer Programme'.
