

North West Glasgow Voluntary Sector Network SCIO

Annual General Meeting

Wednesday 7th December 2022 at Maryhill Burgh Halls, G20 8YE

Present: Melanie Farrow, Dougie Taylor, Sandy Busby, Jill Mackay, Anna Dyer, Yaa Nipah, Neil Lovelock, Andrew Mc Courtney, Margaret Elliott, Julie McMillan, Ailsa MacKenzie, Beth Reid, Yulu He, Emma Richards, Malaika Rose, Ailee Burns, David Cowan, James McCue, Richard McMullen, Robert Alston, Jamila Hassan, Ted Scanlon.

NWGVSN Staff: Martina Johnston-Gray, Lynn Lovelock, Gordon Taylor

Agenda Item	Note	Action
Welcome	Welcome from Martina Johnston-Gray (MJG), Network Manager. MJG thanked members for attending and welcomed everyone to the first in-person AGM in 3 years
Apologies	Alana Forsyth, Jane Cowie, Coral McIntosh, Annie Gillespie, Karen Moyes
Minute of Previous Meeting	Minutes proposed by Bob Alston and Ailsa MacKenzie seconded the accuracy of the minutes.
Chair's Report	Melanie Farrow delivered the Chair's Report. She focussed on the resilience of network members as they continued to battle on through the end of the pandemic and beyond. She acknowledged the network's continued support for its members through capacity building, training, communications and the IT recycling project. She praised the continued strengthening of the online Cuppa & Catchups and the working groups that have emerged from them. She also added her personal thanks and appreciation of the Cuppa & Catchups, which have allowed members to feel connected and supported through challenging times She finished by thanking the members, staff and the Executive committee for their invaluable support and hard work over the past year.
Annual Report Highlights	Martina Johnston Gray presented the main highlights from the Annual Report; including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training- The network offered over 100 free training places to members in-person and online.

	This included Community Engagement, Mental Health First Aid, Autism Awareness, Intro to BSL, Emergency First Aid at Work and Equality, Diversity & Inclusion and Good Governance. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communications – subscribers to the newsletter continue to grow up 11% to almost 380 and we sent 42 newsletters out over the year. Social media channels continue to grow in numbers and engagement • Area Partnerships – the network support voluntary sector reps in the Community Planning Area Partnership meetings. We attended 34 in the year and 4 Sector Partnership meetings. • Cuppa & Catchups and Network Meetings - an important part of what the network does is convene its members. We continued to run online Cuppa & Catchups, 22 in the year and also, post pandemic, held 3 in person network meetings. These meetings are a chance for members to discuss issues and share information and make connections. Working Groups • We also continued with Working Groups – in themes that were important to our members – People Make Glasgow Communities and the recently formed Menopause working group. • IT Recycling Project continued to hand out PCs, laptop, tablets and phones via member referrals. At March 2022, we had given out 700 devices and internet dongles.
Financial report	Andrew Mc Courtney summarised the financial report. There were no questions regarding the accounts. Proposed by Dougie Taylor and seconded by Sandy Busby
Appointment of auditors	Alexander Sloane and company were reappointed. Proposed by Jill Mackay and seconded by Melanie Farrow
AOB	Julie from Shakespeare thanked Martina and the network for their support this year.
Members Film Showcase	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “We get by with a little help from our friends”. The network wanted to highlight the work of its members. • A short film was shown at the end of the AGM: we asked some members to share one of their achievements in the past year and tell us something that the Network helped them with in the past year. • The network is looking for more members to join the showcase film, so get in touch and we’ll come and film you 	Contact us at hello.northwestglasgow.org.uk
Menopause Policy Launch	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Network with some members recently started a Menopause working group.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• At the end of AGM, the network launched their draft Menopause policy and asked members to adopt it and make it their own
Thanks	Martina Johnston Gray thanked everyone for attending closed the AGM	